Sacred Heart School has participated in a drive to collect library books to benefit the community of Nevis, a Caribbean island and third-world country. Karen Koch, a 1980 SHS alumna, has lived on the island for the past eight years. The SHS community, along with the Muenster Public Library, responded to Ms. Koch's request for help by sending boxes of books to Nevis. Fifth grade students packed the donated books, and all boxes were shipped free of charge, thanks to the generosity of Koch Sales Company in Muenster and Tropical Freight in Miami.
